

'Bud' Qualifies Formally

At noon Tuesday, "Bud" Dickinson, Palm Beach County's — and South Florida's — hope for a improvement in the conditions, formally "qualified" for the Governor's race.

Equipped with the "Dickinson Sunshine State Express" a converted bus and an ambulance, Bud took off for Florida's Panhandle with stops at five communities in the afternoon. He ended up at Panama City, where he attended a rally and made a live television appearance at night.

On Wednesday he will make five more towns, ending up at Pensacola in a live television show.

Thursday he makes five more during the day with a night stop at Marianna with a rally and more live television. Friday, five more, with a night live television show at Tallahassee.

Saturday, he ends up in Lake City after having told "folks face-to-face about my plans for Florida's growth" in five more communities.

Altogether 29 towns and cities will have been covered by "both time Saturday night."

"Bud" is in this race "for keeps" and if his supporters will show some of his enthusiasm, Palm Beach County will have it's road problems solved to a greater extent by far than is now in the cards.

"Have you ever seen a Governor's Home City and County without four years' of road activity?"

One Dead, Three Injured Saturday In Train-Car Crash On Pahokee Road

James Warner Brock is dead, his wife injured, Bertie Page critically cut broken and bruised, and W. A. Page, all of Belle Glade, cut on the face, as the result of a crash of the Brock automobile into a switching rail car and engine, Saturday night, at around ten o'clock.

Information of the Highway Patrol, Trooper Jerry Harrison and Cpl. D. T. Jackman, is that the Brock train was passing on the crossing at US No. 441 during a switching operation into the Glades Sugar House.

Apparently the driver of the car did not see the flames and the switchmen who are reported to have been stationed at the crossing.

Beware of Stranger

Like any area where publicity indicates property, the "Fast Buck" boys are having a time in the Glades.

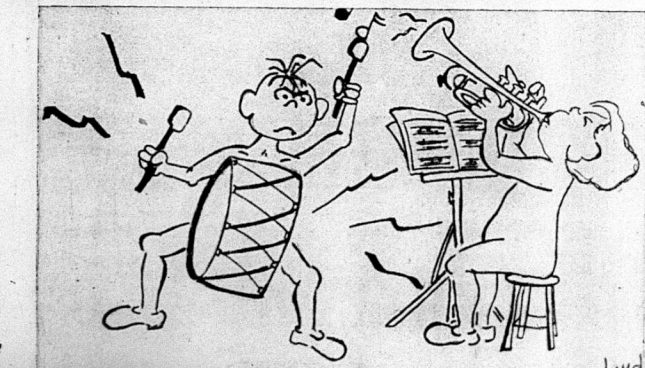

Private lines are reported to have been secured in the Glades from distant points, and local subscribers have had numerous "wonderful opportunities" held out when a personal representative calls.

There are book, magazine, and what-not salesmen, many of whom are "Snowbirds" on the make.

Your Chamber of Commerce and City Hall are cooperating to clear legitimate solicitors who actually offer a bona fide proposition, and if you "fall for these gimmicks," don't bother. Do your hollering BEFORE you sign, or hand over the down-payment, to the Chamber, or to the City Hall.

Ask the next one if he has clearance from the Chamber of Commerce from the City — if he's "on the up-and-up," he has it, or will get it!

A Hootin, A Tootin And A Drummin Up Replacements For "Holey" Slick And Worn Out BGHS Band Uniforms

Claudia Ludewig, a High School art student depicts "earnest endeavor" on the part of band members — they'll be playing like this next week at their concert. Claudia anticipates a lack of clothing (except BVDS) on the part of bandmen. UNLESS the public's heart-strings. AND POCKETBOOKS vibrate joyfully in purchasing tickets to the Concert.

Band Parents have done quite well, but need a few more uniforms — they're leaving Pride at home next week, and would ACCEPT a whole uniform.

As a matter of fact near two score local business houses and individuals have each purchased a uniform.

South Bay Ladies To Serve Bar-B-Q Fri. Nite At Park

The American Legion Auxiliary of South Bay are busy getting funds together to send a South Bay High School girl to Girls' State in Tallahassee, at the end of the current school year.

In addition, they are busy helping to complete the Legion Hall, with whatever funds they have available.

They are not out seeking handouts, without offering something in return. They're prepared to serve you chicken barbecue, as they know how to fix it, or Tunal Salad Friday afternoon commencing at 5-p.m. for a reasonable donation.

There will be rides on the Fire Engine, Pony Rides, Twist Contests and a Kissing Booth — all for the purpose of earning you from some "change" for a good cause.

If you're too busy to come, send along several $ 5 & $ 10 "carey-out."

Troop 601 Camping Trip

Boy Scout Troop 601, sponsored by Saint John's Episcopal Church, had a big time camping last weekend. The Troop camped on Otter Creek about ten miles north of Okeechobee City. The theme of the trip was "Cooking and Better Camping". The area selected for the campsite was shaded by large live oak trees festooned with Spanish moss, and bordered by the creek. There were many different trees surrounding the area. Scouts working on wild edible requirements located 11 varieties that were known to them. Compass work and trailing were passed by many of the Scouts on Saturday afternoon and all agreed that it was a pleasant and painless way for passing Boy Scout requirements.

A cool, clear evening not only made a perfect setting for the campfire ceremony Saturday night, but also provided an excellent opportunity for studying the stars and the several constellations needed for part of first-class Scout requirements.

The many activities throughout the day, which included a very strenuous game of tug-of-war with one-half of the troop trying to pull the other half into Otter Creek. Taps was not needed to lull the boys to sleep.

Sunday morning church services were very impressive. Scripture lesson came from Matthew 6: and the topic for the morning service was "How to Pray," conducted by Scoutmaster Fred White.

Everyone attending the camping trip had to agree that they had a very good time and are looking forward to the next one.

Those attending the trip were: Scoutmaster Fred White, Troop Committeeman Dick Shoemaker, Reg Lewis, and C. E. Haines. Fathers attending were Wallace Luce, Othar Crawford, Scouts attending were: Senior Patrol Leader, Charles Ruff, Greg Jones, Terry Miller, Jimmy Bedsole, Drew Paine, Dickie Snow, Stan Whitlock, Paul White, Jimmy Mincey, Tommy Altman, Paul Prescott, Wally Luce, Steve Berryhill, Sonny Crawford, Brian Moore, Stuart Chappel, Scott Berryhill, Robert Mathews, John Kidder, Jerry Williams, Leon Cunningham, Doug Wall, and Ronnie Hilyer.

Evidence of Changing Times

By Luther A. Key

As one practically any section of our city, it is readily noticeable that many changes are taking place. Scenes are changing, things are looking different. In the Southeast, the new hospital now under construction, changes the scenery considerably. In the northeast, additional homes are being erected. In the Northwest, the additional building of our beautiful and functional Junior High School. In the Southwest, the building that will care for the children. This is a product of the Wee Care Center effort.

As I notice the change in the scenery and observed the many evidences of change about us, I am reminded of the changes that are evident in other areas of our lives, also. No longer do we hear the clanking of the old coal burning locomotives pulling the long string of freight cars and passenger cars along the railroads of America. Now we hear the shrill whistle and the sturdy purring of the diesel engine. However, pulled heavily loaded wagons have given way to the rumble of truck many longer than one ever existed.

—THE BIBLE—

An unknown author has paid the following glowing tribute to the Bible.

"This Book contains the mind of God, the State of Man, the way of Salvation, the doom of Sinners, and the happiness of Believers. Its doctrines are Holy, its precepts are Binding, its histories are True, and its decisions are Infallible. Read it to be Wise, believe it to be Safe, and practice it to be Holy. It is the Light that directs every Foot to support you, and Comfort to cheer you. It is the traveler's map, the pilgrim's staff, the soldier's sword, the soldier's sword and the Christian's charter. Herein paradise is restored, and glory is revealed. Christ is its grand object, our good its design, and the glory of God its end. It should fill the memory, rule the heart and guide the feet. Read it slowly, frequently and gratefully. It is a mine of love, a paradise of glory, and a river of pleasure. It is given you in life, will be opened in judgment, and remembered forever. It involves the greatest responsibility, will reward the highest labor, and will condemn all who trifle with its sacred contents. It offers protection for infancy, happiness for childhood, inspiration for youth, strength for maturity, assurance for old age, comfort for grief, and salvation and riches for glory and reward for eternity."

You are invited to study this great book at the Belle Glade Church of Christ, 123 N. W. Avenue D.

ORBIT PATH: THE CROSS

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest force for good in the world. It is the only force that can bring about a lasting peace and unity among all peoples.

What instruments can we use to discover this message for ourselves? You will find it in your church this Sunday.

We all know now about Cape Canaveral, about tracking stations. We are discovering more about outer space.

We know too about the Church. Let us use it then as our guide, our booster, our thrust to Heaven.

"Conservation Matter Of Concern"

Mrs. Mounts Tells Garden Club

Mrs. M. U. Mounts of West Palm Beach was the guest speaker at the meeting of the Belle Glade Garden Club held last Thursday, Feb. 13 at 2 p. m. at McDonald Park Club house.

The talk on conservation presented by Mrs. Mounts was factual and informative concerning the dwindling natural resources here in Florida. She said water conservation is being quite adequately cared for, and Florida has not too much to be concerned about in this area. However, she pointed out, when it comes to our forests, animal and bird life, as well as our public beaches, we need to take an active interest.

Several of our public beaches already resemble small Coney Islands, are overcrowded, and with an expected population, she told the group, many of our children and grandchildren may find it difficult, if not impossible to enjoy them. Many birds and animals that were plentiful such a few short years ago are becoming extinct.

"It is a matter of much concern," Mrs. Mounts said in closing her talk, "for all of us as civic minded citizens to take an active part in any way we can to help in the conservation programs for Florida. We may get programs of work underway, and information as to how we can take action personally by writing to Mrs. Russell Mason, Executive sec. of the Audubon Society Maitland, Fla."

Serving refreshments of cake and coffee preceding the business meeting were the hostesses.

Belle Glade Cagers Sprint At Finish

Now winners of 22 successive games this winter, the Hornets of Riviera Beach set out this week to lock up the 14th Suncoast Conference basketball championship for which they assured themselves of no less than a tie this past week.

For this last week of the regular season, the Hornets travel after assuring the tie with an 80-58 success at Ft. Pierce Friday. Tuesday night they call on tough Seacrest and its No. 2 scorer, Dave Miller. The Hawks, tied for third, bowed at Riviera by 18 points Jan. 14, should be much more difficult at home. Friday the leaders go to Stuart where Tigers are 4-14 over-all and hardly expected to be any stumbling block for the Hornets.

With the season's end coming up and the league's spring meeting slated at Pahokee next Saturday when the all-conference choice will be made, primary attention is on the league's cage marks which are falling.

The most points in a game standard fell last month when Palm Beach and Belle Glade amassed 201 at Belle Glade Jan. 28. As Palm Beach drubbed

Growing With The Glades—32 Years Actively Demonstrated By Wedgworths

President Ruth Wedgworth and Vice-Pres. George Wedgworth in front of one of the subsidiary operations of Wedgworth, Inc. — Precooling and Packinghouse.

Mrs. Ruth Wedgworth, as a fellow student with her husband, and with sustained interest in his scientific work as a Plant Pathologist, found more specific activity in dirt farming when Herman H. Wedgworth left the Everglades Experiment Station to devote full time in vegetable production on the mucklands, in the early-thirties.

The Home Place the East half of Section 9 was added to, with the acquisition of a section between Six and Nine-mile-bend the Wedgworth Empire of Glades agricultural production consisting today of vegetables, beef, and sugar cane was launched.

Supplying those minor elements of plant food in which the muck was deficient, with normal fertilizers scientifically determined to be needed, made hand shovelling on the barn floor a chore for the organization.

In '37 Ruth and Herman Wedgworth decided that mechanical mixing, as then practiced, offered economical possibilities, especially if neighbors would patronize a local plant offering competitive service and quality. So, the "old plant," located just south of the packinghouse, was designed and built with a three-ton hourly capacity, to be increased to ten-tons capacity in '50.

British Guiana - Another Red Menace In South America

Most East Indians are employed in skilled professions like electricians, building trade, supervisors in the factories, jewelers and a fair amount of doctors and lawyers are East Indian. They own most rice and coconut estates, employing their own race as labor. Most rice mills are in their hands. Rice is becoming British Guiana's second most important export product. Furthermore they are owners of stores that are getting bigger all the time to great despair of Mr. Bookers.

The minority of the East Indian is formed by the molting group, who cannot consume pork. This does not prevent them from raising pigs in conjunction with their rice mills. The pork is consumed by the majority, the Hindu, who cannot eat the sacred animal named cow. So the Hindu raises the cow to be consumed by his muslim counterpart. Both groups are forbidden by their religion to consume alcoholic beverages. Both groups violate this prohibition and are heavy consumers of rum.

By Western standards the East Indian is rather cruel. By virtue of religion the muslims keep more than one wife. This is not practiced in B. G. since the mere denouncing of a wife by the husband under the islam law produces sufficient chatter for the husband and is cheaper. Hindu are divorced equally easy but members of both religions always marry in their respective temples. This is in contrast with the negro race who always lives in concubinage. Fights with cane knives are common among East Indians, and doctors on the estates spend their night time after payday with attending wounds. Wives are often beaten to death and drunken husbands are killed by wives out of self protection.

The death penalty by hanging is enforced in B. G. and proportionally about four times more East Indians than any other race in B. G. live through the pose. The East Indian is very thrifty, still remembering the lean years in India and Pakistan. Wives and daughters fish daily for the protein requirement of the family, grow the rice and vegetables and attend to the one or two cows grazing on chain along the road. All cash gained by the husband is saved to purchase golden jewelry. Although economically advanced most East Indians are still primitive in their financing. The golden jewelry is mainly purchased to be used as collateral in pawn shops. The East Indian has started to use banks but he is still suspicious. We had a watchman at one of our factories who worked 364 days per year. Every year on the second of January he rented a suit in a taxi and went to the Royal Bank of Canada in Georgetown. There he withdrew his savings of about $2000 dollars B. G. and deposited the money and deposited the whole sum again to make sure that all was still there.

Finally, the decades of importing indentured labor had stopped at the beginning of World War II. Mr. Bookers, as every other company in the world wanted to expand his production and to do so he needed more labor. Importation had stopped and the only way to increase the labor demand for the future was to increase the supply already present locally. In the old days it was cheaper to import indentured labor than to provide adequate medical care. Mr. Bookers started to employ his own medical staff in 1947. This resulted in British Guiana being the first country in South America to eradicate malaria, and since 1949 no malaria cases have been reported in the inhabited areas of the country.

Both principal races, the negro and East Indian multiply like rabbits with girls having their first babies, legitimate or not, when 12 or 13 years old. With the brake on population explosion, in the form of elimination of major diseases, removed, the results were disastrous. Within nearly two decades the population has multiplied so rapidly that the area along the Atlantic has become overpopulated. A large capital investment and political stability are needed to open up new areas for resettling, and both are absent in British Guiana.

In summing up we say that B. G. is a country with totally different races, that hate each other by virtue of religion and land of origin. This creates an ideal situation for England to practice its century old slogan: Divide and rule. It also is a country that is monopolized by one of Eastlands most powerful, overseas operating companies and it is overpopulated. This side of the story forms an ideal situation for Communist subversion. In a next talk I will tell you how the two countries, Eastlands divide and rule and the communist subversion have clashed during the last decade. Continuation of the program will take place on February 7. Even if you could not stand my talk today, please be present, if only for the sake of winning the attendance contest. Members of the Pahokee and Clewiston clubs are excused for this reason.

Uncle Dan Says:

Dear Mister Editor:
I been over to E. Doolittle's house all afternoon studying his dictionary. Like I told you, on account of being such a good speller myself, I ain't never invested in one of them books. But they was times nowadays where a taxpayer can't keep up with what's going on in Washington without a dictionary. If things don't get better in the Congress, it looks like I'm going to have to buy one.

For instant, I was reading in the papers where Congressmen was now getting - 600 a year more for postage and it was "retroactive" to last July. From the best I can make out from Ed's dictionary, this means a Congressman is getting stamps for letters he mailed last July when he was already giving these stamps from his office fund. In a manner of speaking, I reckon you'd have to say our Congressmen was now mailing "retroactive" letters. They ain't many folks that can turn this trick.

My memory, Mister Editor goes back a long way. I can recollect when the women folks wore starched petticoats that rattled when they walked. If they was anybody in the house that can recollect further back than that, let him stand up and he recognized. And not in my memory has been such a waste and extravagance as we got in Washington today.

Me and Ed was discussing these matters and he was of the opinion that the average Congressman ain't got but one definition of waste - a dollar or two spent in some other Congressman's district. For instant, Ed said he was reading a piece where Congressmen used $385,029 in "petty cash" last year on them junkets they took to Paris and such places. He said these figures was give out by the U. S. Treasury Department and was official.

Incidental, I see by the papers where President Johnson's "economy drive" ain't setting too good with some of the aid he's giving. When he cut the number of official cars amongst the various agencies from 491 to 136 one of them fellers in the State Department was complaining we was the only country in the world where a diplomat in striped pants had to ride a bicycle. Personal, Mister Editor, a little more walking and a little less talking might do some of them fellers a heap of good.

I was reading the other day where some feller was explaining the red, white and blue in our flag. He claimed the taxpayers was seeing red when they discussed taxes, was turning white when they got the bill, and was paying till they got blue in the face. He didn't mention it, but I reckon some of the taxpayers was also seeing stars.

Yours truly,
Uncle Dan

Sponsored by the 10-State Southern Council of Optometrists, the event is expected to attract an attendance of around 1,400 optometrists and guests.

The local optometrist will hear more than 12 hours of lectures by some of the Nation's foremost authorities reporting on the latest advances in the eyecare field. He will also attend workshops and visit some 60 displays of equipment and ophthalmic materials.

New Regulations Slated For Hunting-Fishing

Florida's 1964-65 hunting and fishing regulations will be established during the month of April and become effective July 1, 1964, according to an announcement by A. D. Aldrich, director, Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission.

The annual regulations meeting has been advanced to April in order to provide additional time for printing of regulations. Prior to the April meeting, both hunting and fishing regulations were established during the month of July and as a result fishermen often found themselves fishing without full knowledge of the current regulations.

New Boat Ramps Now Available To Public

Florida's fresh water fishermen will find a number of new boat ramps and launching sites when they start fishing this spring. The ramps are available for public use and were made possible through an accelerated public access program of the Florida Outdoor Recreation Council, according to John Woods, chief, fisheries division, Game and Fresh Water, Fish Commission.

Since the beginning of the boat ramp and public access program, the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission has constructed 119 ramps on 83 bodies of water in 45 counties.

Typewriters, Piano, Range, A Few Of Needs For Wee Care Nursery

Interest in Wee Care Nursery continues to grow and spread. A contribution of $26 to Wee Care Inc. was received this past week from the Woman's Society of Christian Service of First Methodist Church of Riviera Beach. The Rev. Lee D. Eakin, former pastor of the local Methodist Church, is pastor.

The donation came as a spontaneous response to a missionary program presented to the Riviera Beach Society by Mrs. Ruth Wedgeworth. Mrs. Sara Lee Grech, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Taylor, at the invitation of Mrs. Lee D. Eakin. The program participants related the planning and building to date of Wee Care Center is a racial project, and its value to the community.

In addition to the contribution of money, members of the society plan to make dresses for children of ages 18 months thru 5 years; also children's butcher aprons, sheets and quilted pads for baby cribs. They have donated a play pen and pad. They are giving out lists of needed nursery items to other contributors. The above was reported at the weekly meeting of the Furnishings Committee. The First Baptist Church is contributing $125 for nursery equipment according to the plan of the Rev. Luther A. Key. Also two beds, a lavatory, large gas heater, a refrigerator and 18 chairs for adults.

Mrs. Clyde Parrish reports contribution of a bassinet and crib. The two play pens are being constructed by W. L. Cunningham, Sr., for the nursery.

Mrs. Jean White stated the Mary Ruth Circle of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of Community Methodist Church has donated $21.00 for 60 set sheets which they will sew. The Joy and Star circles will donate $12.00 for purchase of cots. The Annamita and Clara circles are giving one cot and one nursery chair. She also reported that Mrs. E. C. Mapp has contributed $10 for purchase of two plastic garbage cans and Mrs. James Wareing has given a training chair.

Mrs. Roy W. Brown reports that Mrs. Roscoe Forrest of Fort Myers, Fla. and Mrs. John E. Brown have donated a portable metal diaper cart. Girl Scout Troop 281 of which

Funds Needed Completion Date Of March 1st Scheduled For Wee Care Center

The New Wee Care Nursery Center building is steadily approaching completion. Planning of the 138 feet by 62 feet building is underway this week.

Funds for completion of the building are said to be urgently needed. Those persons who have been most closely connected with this building project, believe the funds will be forthcoming. The work thus far has been primarily on a "pay as we build" plan. Thus every contribution of money, regardless of size, helps to bring the proposed building date of the building, March 1st, nearer to reality.

Interest in the building of Wee Care Center has been much varied throughout the community and surrounding areas. There have been many donations — of money, time, effort, work, planning, etc.

For example, labor, estimated more than $7,000 has been contributed by both skilled and unskilled workers. The latter has worked under expert supervision.

Thirty-one Lake Shore High School vocational pupils working under the direction of their instructor, Rufus Washington, have contributed some 400 hours of good work in about 10 days time.

Washington stated that Wee Care Center project has helped to stimulate interest in the classroom, for the pupils have been made more aware of the need for learning and doing a particular project. Also they have become more alert to the potentials of the trained trades.

To Be Honored

McGregory Smith, Florida Power and Light Company chairman of the board and the utility's chief executive officer for 25 years, will be honored by the University of Tennessee Saturday, Feb. 22 as "Engineer of the year."

The Nathan W. Dougherty Award for 1963, given each year to an outstanding leader in the engineering field, will be presented to Smith at the Florida Engineering Society's annual banquet, 7 p. m., at the Everglades Hotel.

The utility executive is a board member of Eastern Airlines, Inc. and the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta. He also is a University of Miami trustee and serves in a similar capacity for the American Heritage Foundation. Other memberships include the Orange Bowl Committee, Florida Engineering Society and the United Fund.

Palm Beach Limb & Brace, Inc.

The Palm Beach Limb & Brace, Inc. is located at 2022 N. Dixie Hwy. in West Palm Beach, phone 332-6853 for any information.

It is the sincere wish of the Palm Beach Limb & Brace, Inc. that you do not now need or use an artificial limb, brace or appliance, but if you do, or if you ever should, then we suggest that you contact this firm for experienced and expert fittings. They will fit you comfortably and suitably according to your particular need. They also feature Children's orthopedic shoes.

We are aware of the fact that there isn't anything that can take the place of the natural limb, but you certainly can be helped to learn to live a normal life, enjoying most of the things that any person with both limbs enjoy. This includes fishing, hunting, swimming, dancing, etc. Many persons of both sexes have learned that life can be beautiful, even though they thought at one time that life had nothing to offer, after an accident or other factor had caused the loss of a limb. You too, can learn to use an artificial limb with complete confidence.

In this Review, we heartily recommend that you contact Palm Beach Limb & Brace, Inc. and have a talk with them about how you too can be helped to live normally again. Phone them for an appointment, they will be glad to explain their service to you with no obligation on your part.

"LEGERDEMAIN"

According to Webster, means slight of hand, which has absolutely nothing to do with the drapery business, but it does draw attention to our ad.

Van Cothern's, in Clewiston, has installed the most complete drapery department around the lake. Florene, our seamstress and decorator, is most adept, having many years' experience on the east coast. Draperies and slipcovers are her business. Give her a try and I think you will agree, she's great.

In order to establish ourselves in Belle Glade in the drapery field as we have in upholstering in the past ten years, we are offering unusually low prices at this time. Florene will be most happy to come to your home, day or night, give free estimates, bring samples and help you with color and fabric selections best suited to your needs and taste.

Our shop in Clewiston is open for your inspection and service every day except Sunday and usually every night until eleven. For your further convenience you can call 996-6351 in Belle Glade or YUKON 2-5831 in Clewiston, collect.

We also offer complete custom red installations, hundreds of samples to choose from our drapery books. Usually we can offer one week delivery, though this is not always possible.

All we are asking for is a chance to prove our ability. Now would be an excellent time for you to consider new draperies — we are most anxious to please. No job is too large or too small.

The Little Boys Have The Biggest Horns!

No Use!

Why Bother?

I always give myself plenty of time to prepare for semester exams so that I'll be assured of a good grade. Therefore, the night before the test, I started to study.

I went to get my notes and then remembered I had left them in my locker! I panicked! There I was, depending entirely on those notes (I'd lost my textbook a week before) without anything to study! Finally, I called Mary and with a little bit of annoyance she said I could come over and copy hers.

Two hours later I was back home, and even with her text book, because she'd already studied it, I really got down to work — for about twenty minutes. It was then time for "Dr. Kildare" and nothing could stop me from watching that. After all, I had to have some relaxation, and I did go fairly fully back to my studying when it was over.

From then on, until three o'clock the next morning, I was sprawled on my bed pouring over the book and notes. That is, of course, excluding the times I went to the kitchen for snacks and dozed off when my eyelids got too heavy.

The next morning I was "in and in" by the time my mother had called me five times, and finally screamed, "You're going to be late if you don't get up!" I therefore dressed quickly, grabbed breakfast, and dashed to school.

Just before the last bell rang, I was in my seat. "Autobots!" I began to breeze through the first few questions on my exam. Then the sweat was on. What a test! First, I answered all the questions I knew, then I made up of a hundred. Next, I thought out a calculated guess for over half the others. With only thirty questions that I didn't have the faintest idea of how to answer, I began the "Ram-Page" Method. At least it was a multiple — "Guess" test!

At last, I finished the test and left the classroom dazed. I couldn't figure out why I didn't know more of the answers. It really burned me up when I thought about all the sleep I'd sacrificed to study for the stupid test.

As I left the room, Sue came up to me with her sad tale of woe (she'd bombed the test also). She said she hadn't studied at all. Disgustedly I retorted, "Just be glad you didn't study! I did and it didn't do a bit of good. Nobody could have passed that test!"

BUT — they're also the lightest in weight, for they are made of fiberglass. These boys — Alan Pace, Bill Phillips and Barney Weeks, will be TOOTIN' AND TOOTIN' February 28 for some help on buying new uniforms for 79 members of the Belle Glade High School Band, at near Eighty Dollars apiece.

Come out to see and HEAR your High School Band, in concert — they're playing for their uniforms, and need your help.

The Beginning Of The End

By Barbara Collins

The second semester is now coming up. For many of us, this semester will be a beginning. It will open doors to many new and exciting experiences. We will start fresh and clear with half a year before us, waiting for us to do with it as we please. We can either be one of those students who don't participate in any activities, or we can be one who really gets in and works it. It may seem strange, but the student who does the most work and is more a part of the activity is the one who gets the most out of it.

There are many projects which the Class of '64 will undertake during this second semester. The class play, class night, and the Senior trip. These activities provide the students a chance to enjoy the companionship of their classmates, perhaps for the first time. The Senior of 1964 will soon be parting and the new class will be starting to build something constructive together.

Our Talented Supreme Court

Recently, the Supreme Court of the U. S. met in a revolutionary decision concerning Bible reading and prayer in public schools. According to the majority opinion, such activities tend to show respect to an establishment of religion which is quite unconstitutional. To have Bible reading or prayer would hurt the ego of an atheist. Since he has the right to be an atheist, it is the infringement on his rights to allow others to listen to a scripture reading or say a prayer in his presence.

Now that our Supreme Court has shown such a marked ability to define rights and eliminate references to God in school, we hope the justices will continue to develop this and many other abilities.

Why do they not eliminate "under God" from our pledge of allegiance to the flag? Why should we look for guidance to someone we can't even see? It's down-right unconstitutional to require people to do so. Since we can see our members of the Supreme Court, we would do well to substitute "under our guide and protector, the Supreme Court." After all, we can depend on them; they always come through at crucial moments.

I contend that it's just not fair or constitutional to make our enlightened objectives friends spend money with the "meritless." In "God We Trust" on it. If we can't get this phrase off our money soon, the atheists will start spending money. I am sure, and our economy will be crippled. Perhaps our Supreme Court could appear by writing "In Thee We Trust" on our currency.

Instead of singing "God Bless America," we need a song that doesn't deprive some of their rights. The Supreme Court has displayed "varied talents"; perhaps there is a composer among them. I suggest something in the order of "Comrades Bless America." This would be much more appropriate in this decade of belated transformation. They might even enliven the beat or otherwise improve the melody; they have a great taste astounding ability to live up things since '34.

A number of the senior boys went to the woods this weekend. What's so interesting down there? Skip S., Bert D., Johnny D., Roy D., Donny S., Tim H., and Dan H. I. H., Tim H., Bookie W., what's this about coming back from the woods? Not, I'm sure, to see Skip S., Bert D., Johnny D., Roy D., Donny S., Tim H., and Dan H. I. H. We didn't see you at the dance after all.

Good try, Johnny, but there were too many lovers to persuade them to stay in the woods.

Don A. it would have been a long walk from Big Cypress to Belle Glade, wouldn't it? Barbara C. is it true that Larkie other than Sean keeps sending out and sending.

We've been hearing reports from Glee Club about Der One, you know Der One. Don't Can't sing.

A New "Deal"

The student body and the faculty would like to take pleasure in welcoming Mrs. Deal, the new English teacher, and her husband to Belle Glade. Mrs. Deal has taken over the teaching position that was held by Mrs. Walden during the first semester.

Mrs. Deal hails from West Virginia. She attended West Virginia University where she received her B. A. degree. As for her pet peeve, and many teachers will agree, students who refuse to do their homework!

Charred steak ranks first on her favorite food list. Mrs. Deal and Mr. Deal reside at Mr. Deal's Trailer Park. Mr. Deal is a produce inspector. Mrs. Deal commented that the people here are very friendly and that she likes Belle Glade. High School a great DEAL!

So as students and teachers of B. H. S., let's all try to make Mr. and Mrs. Deal feel at home and make their stay a pleasant one!

F. T. A. Meeting

Miss Mary McMillan, the guest speaker at the Future Teachers Meeting Tuesday, February 11, gave an interesting and informative talk on the advantages, and disadvantages of teaching, and the qualities found in a good teacher.

Mr. Morris presented the Cadet Teacher plan to the club. In this plan, five students will go to the elementary school one hour a week to assist a teacher in her duties. In this project, the cadet teachers will have the experience of being with and teaching students.

The F. T. A. club has ordered toothbrush sets, which they will soon be selling to the community.

Lotta Problems

Dear Lotta:

This boy I like was at the Senior car wash Saturday. To get his attention, I squirted him with water. He got mad and threw a bucket of soapy water on me to get even. What should I do?

Dear All Wet:

Forget him and just "slip" away.

Dear Lotta:

My boyfriend has a Beatle haircut and it looks awful. What can I do?

The Future Mrs. Ringo Star.

Don't let it "bug" you.

Dear Lotta:

I am so hurt because my boyfriend didn't give me a box of chocolate for Valentine's day. All my girlfriends got one and I didn't.

Heartless.

Dear Heartless:

Don't worry about it. Date your boyfriend when summer sets here. Put on your bathing suit and go to the beach where you'll have a wonderful chance to catch a lot of boyfriends as you smile smugly at all your fat girlfriends.

Belle Glade vs. Vero Beach

Vero Beach

The Belle Glade Rams basketball team lost a close game Friday night, February 14, at Vero Beach High by only five points. The Rams lead the first, second, and third quarters in scoring, but Vero's 28 to 14 point attack during the second quarter gave them the edge, winning 76 to 71.

Tony Latour was the high point man for the Rams with 23 points scored. Cary Jones and Eddie Buckner were next with 11 points each.

On A Quiet Lake With God

Lake With God

What more perfect way could we end the perfect day than on a quiet lake with God! After a full day of mirth and song, work and play, we should enjoy a couple of restful hours in which to consider how richly blessed we have been. We might feel a gentle breeze which slightly rippled the quiet, clear waters and swayed the hanging moss on the lone cypress tree. The hazy reflection of the clouds on the slightly rippled water might remind us of a ghost sliding aimlessly along the orange-tinted surface of the lake; yet when we behold the snowy-white clouds gliding gracefully through the sunset-lit heavens, we breathlessly recall the words of the psalmist David: "The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handiwork." Then the sky might respond with one last glowing shower of colors so beautiful no words could describe them. After this last breath-taking display has duly shrouded the opaque waters, a greyish darkness prevails. Following a silent moment of contemplation, we would be compelled to bow humbly before our Creator and with thanksgiving utter, "O Lord our Lord, how excellent is Thy name in all the earth!"

Interact In Action

The club met on February 13 in the band room with the president, John Causey, presiding. Committees were appointed to prepare for the upcoming faculty-society basketball game.

The club also discussed the selection of new members. The underclassmen of the club are looking for some good candidates to fill the membership presently held by seniors. Membership expires after graduation from high school, but the club has gained a good foundation through the leadership of the '64 senior members.
